Our Speaker: Debbie Schmidt

Debbie Schmidt lives in Baltimore, MD with her husband, John, who is the Senior pastor of Central Presbyterian Church. Debbie is a 'professional volunteer,' working with the women's ministry at Central and training volunteers for HopeSprings, an HIV/AIDS related ministry. She is also president of Presbyterian for Renewal [beginning in October], www.pfrenewal.org

Debbie's teaching ministry has been shaped by the years she spent with her husband working with college students in Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, by her experience as a missionary with the PCUSA in Japan for ten years, and by her role as a pastor's wife. The common denominator for her in all those experiences has been teaching the Bible in small groups and leading and teaching at retreats. As a wife and the mother of grown and married children, she brings her own life experiences to bear on her teaching as she tries to make the Word of God clear and applicable to daily life.

Debbie enjoys walking in her neighborhood, knitting, and spending time with friends. She will also jump at any opportunity to go dancing with her husband!

Seasons of Praise

The Psalms call us to praise God. The apostle Paul tells us to rejoice always. But it's not always easy or natural to do that. Should we just put on a 'happy face' and do it anyway? What does authentic praise look like? What difference can it make for us as we learn to praise God no matter what?

Praise the LORD, O my soul; all my inmost being, praise His holy name.
Psalm 103:1
