

COVID-19 INFORMATIONAL RESOURCES

Updated April 9, 2020

On this page you will find information from reputable sources is an invaluable resource during this time. The following websites may be helpful for up-to-date news and wisdom for Christians:

NC Department of Health and Human Services | ncdhhs.gov

It's prudent to get state-specific updates straight from the source.

Winston-Salem Forsyth County Schools | wsfcs.k12.nc.us

This page hosts all of the latest updates (including free student meals, eLearning resources, parent FAQ, etc.) for the Forsyth County school system. WS/FCS will also host an informational hotline. Parents and students with questions related to the closure can call (336) 661-3128 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, during the closure.

Switchboard | switchboardta.org

A multilingual roundup of resources on COVID-19.

Corona Virus and the Church | coronavirusandthechurch.com

A gathering of trusted church leaders who can guide us to respond to this pandemic in the hope of Christ.

“Christians, This Is Our Moment: A Call to Clarity and Mission” | Christianity Today Blog

A winsome article by Ed Stetzer and Andrew MacDonald on the missional opportunity imbedded in this crisis.

ECO Resource Page | eco-pres.org/covid-19/

Our denomination has pooled resources for continuing ministry. Parents may find the resources at the bottom of the page especially helpful.
